CLASSROOM HIGHLIGHTS

From the desk of Mrs. Congelio

Mrs. Borden's 8th grade ELA class recently read The Tell-Tale Heart by Edgar Allan Poe. Today, they participated in a Socratic Seminar, discussing who the narrator could be in this story. Jack D. was the moderator in this group, guiding the discussion as students used text evidence to either support or refute one another's opinions. This was something special to see!

FULL STEAM AHEAD

Students in first grade experimented with the design challenges as they tried to construct structures that could withstand weight. Apparently, pumpkin candy corns and toothpicks are more challenging than one would think! The picture on the left shows our new first grade teacher, Mrs. Marzenski, helping the students with this concept. Great job, first grade!

IMPORTANT PARKING LOT REMINDERS

A few friendly reminders from your favorite parking lot crew!

Morning Drop-Off: Over the last two weeks, we have had a few back ups onto Pearl Road. Please pull forward along the cross walk as far as possible, and if your child needs assistance getting out of the car, you may park in the parking spaces and we will walk your child safely across and to the school doors.

Afternoon Pick-Up: The parking lot does not open until 2:10 p.m., as we have preschool dismissal from 2-2:10 p.m. and need time and space to safely dismiss our littlest Warriors.

During dismissal, cars must enter from Pearl Road and exit onto Big Creek Parkway. Please also remind any person that's picking up your child of this traffic flow. We have busses that arrive between 2:30-2:45, and we need the traffic pattern to be maintained for the safety of all in the parking lot. ******

PTSU Santa Shop: Volunteers Needed!

Jingle bell, jingle bell, jingle bell rock...We have something for you, that's right around the block! Our annual Secret Santa workshop will run Tuesday, December 7, to Friday, December 10, in St Joseph Hall. If you love the holidays and want to be involved, then this is the perfect opportunity for you!

First, if you want to be on the committee, we will have our first meeting the last week of October.

Second, we are in need of many helping hands during the week of the workshop in everything from selling cookies, to helping kids shop, to wrapping gifts, and personalizing ornaments. A sign up form will be sent in mid-November for volunteers with dates/times.

Lastly, we are looking for contributions to the raffle baskets and additional items to sell at our shop. In years past, we have had beautiful homemade items donated, and we are hoping to carry on this tradition.

If you have any questions, or are interested in being on the committee, please click here to email Katie Winter!
